

Awards Made At Arsenal for Employee Hints

Suggestion awards totaling $225 were presented recently to five Joliet Arsenal employees by Col. Ronald B. Currens, commanding officer, Joliet Arsenal.

Charles G. Evans, an electrical linesman in the R. & U. division, received an award for his suggestion relative to the use of motor-driven dust suction fans for removal of sawdust. Evans has been employed at the Joliet Arsenal since Dec. 3, 1945. He resides in a farm house located on the Joliet Arsenal.

MARVIN G. BRITT received an award for his suggestion relative to an improvement in the multi-pour machines in the operating groups. Britt resides at 301½ Richards St., Joliet. He is employed in the Operations division of the Joliet Arsenal as an industrial specialist.

Jesse W. Tipsworth received an award for his suggestion relative to a safety improvement in the Administration Building, KNK unit, Joliet Arsenal. Tipsworth is a resident of Dwight, and is employed by the Arsenal as a custodian.

GEORGE A. BALL, a welder in the R. & U. division, was given a cash award for his suggestion relative to fabrication of a tool to facilitate the pulling of pipe from a well, which eliminated a safety hazard. Ball has been employed since June 26, 1949. He resides in a farm-house on the Arsenal reservation.

Harry H. Westelius, 311 Oneida St., Joliet, was given a suggestion award for his suggestion relative to conservation of electricity. Westelius is employed as a guard in the Security branch.